

Lawyers' Insurance Association of Nova Scotia

ALERT!

New delinquent money collection scam

A recent version of the collection scam requests assistance in recovering a large sum of money from a “former business partner”. This email has been reported to us by various members and has appeared on scam reporting web sites. If you receive this email or a version of it (details such as names and dollar amounts may vary), simply disregard the “request” and forward the message to me if you desire.

From: Bryan Mark <bryanmark@sanook.com>
Date: Monday, June 6, 2011
Subject: Greetings
To: undisclosed-recipients: ;

My company is currently looking for a Law Firm that can assist us with the issue of an overdue loan of $575,000 that I had provided to a former business partner of mine Robert Stewart. If you or your firm can handle this matter, get back to me at your earliest convenience so that I can provide detailed information and related documents on this issue.

Sincerely
Mark E. Bryan

Fraud alerts posted to www.lians.ca

Visit our fraud alerts section on a regular basis to stay informed about current and common scam attempts, or add http://lians.ca/rpm/risk_management/fraud/alerts/ to your favorites list to avoid getting duped.

To report or seek advice on dealing with fraud and scam attempts, contact Cynthia Nield at cnield@lians.ca or 902 423 1300, x346.