Matching Information

What goals/interests/issues would you like to address over the course of the mentoring relationship? Goals can include professional, developmental, business, marketing, work-life balance or any other goals you wish to identify. Please be as specific as you can without divulging any confidential information. The more specific you can be, the better the match is likely to be.

If there are specific qualities you would prefer in your match, please identify them. These may include the years of experience, personal background, diversity issues, family issues, type of practice or any other qualities that may relate to your own specific interests.

Are there any firms or organizations you would prefer not to work with due to a conflict, or for any other reason? If yes, please list them.

If there is not a suitable match in your area, are you willing to participate in the mentorship as a member of a long-distance pair, and to work with someone over the telephone or via email? Yes No
